

Invitation to SSF Event: How new soft and hard law requirements challenge the financial sector

Date and Time: Wednesday, 9 March 2016, 16:30-19:00 (followed by apéro)

Location: UBS Conference Center Grünenhof, Nüscherstr. 9, 8001 Zürich

In this SSF event we will shed light on the rapidly evolving regulatory environment pertaining to corporate responsibility and sustainability. What are the risks and opportunities that financial institutions face due to new soft and hard law initiatives related to environmental and human rights issues? How can banks, insurers, and asset managers make sure they are prepared for the changes ahead?

Program

16:00-16:30	Registration
16:30-16:40	Welcome note	Sabine Döbeli , CEO Swiss Sustainable Finance
16:40-17:00	Introduction: From soft law to hard law	Olivier Jaeggi , Managing Director, ECOFACT
17:00-17:25	New French climate legislation and relevance for Swiss Asset Managers	Robin Edme , Senior Advisor Responsible Finance to the French Ministry of Ecology
17:25-17:45	CSR position paper of the Federal Council and implementation in practice	Alex Kunze , CSR Senior Advisor, SECO
17:45-18:00	Break
18:00-19:00	Panel discussion: Opportunities and risks in finance resulting from regulatory changes	moderated by Sabine Döbeli with Robin Edme Alex Kunze Christian Leitz , Head Corporate Responsibility Management, UBS Erol Bilecen , Head Corporate Communications, Vescore
19:00	Apéro and networking

Participation Fees:

The event is free of charge for SSF members and network partners.

All other participants will be charged a participation fee of CHF 80 (excl. VAT). This participation fee will be invoiced even in case of absence, unless cancelled by 4 March 2016

Please register on the SSF website or email us at info@sustainablefinance.ch by Wednesday, 2 March 2016, latest.

The event is kindly supported by UBS AG.